I am saddened by her passing of course but it is comforting to know that she is with pop Wilson and they both make wonderful additions to heaven.In 27 years in her family she came to treat me like a daughter and her and Mr. Wilson's hearts and home was always open.I know I will see both of them again some day for now Godspeed and rest in peace.Cindy Wilson - Yesterday at 03:04 PM

She was the best Mom ever..!!!

I was thinking of her. Pop Eugene, Larry, Wanda and Scotty just before Christmas. My daughter asked me where I got a wooden jewelry box with 3 little drawers and a long skinny drawer on the side that was made to hold rings. I said a friend gave it to me for Christmas one year when I was about 16. Then I started thinking back to the bowling alley and bowling with Wanda and her family. Playing Uno with Wanda and Wanda's brothers. Mom as everyone called her was making corn bread and beans. No one could ever make cornbread like her not even my grandmother. Well I know she is happy now because she is with Pop. I am sure she was missing him after he passed. Prayers to you Mom. Thank you Mom and Pop for your guidance and help when I was a confused teenager.

So sad to hear of Mom Wilson's passing. I still remember the first time I met her was at Bowl America. My first born was in the playpen crying and this lady picked him up. From then on for many years she was called "mom" Wilson. Even though I hadn't seen her in several years, I have great memories of her, bowling, hanging out at her house, great times, and her great cooking. Rest in peace! Prayers to the family.
