Olga Elisabeth Newcomer

MAY 17, 1930 - FEB 16, 2024

On February 16, 2024, Angels came and took Olga Elisabeth Mitterer Newcomer to Heaven.

Olga was born in Austria and moved to the United States in the 1950's. She made Fredericksburg her home where she worked at Mary Washington College for many years. After retirement Olga spent her life taking care of her cats and lots of homeless cats throughout Fredericksburg. As Olga aged, she moved to Woodmont where she lived until her job on earth was over.

Olga is survived by her sister Johanna Worseg and her nephew Hans Feichtner of Austria. We would like to thank the Staff at The Woodmont Center for the many years of kind care they provided.

A private service will be held to honor Olga's wishes.

In Memory of Olga, donations can be made to Spotsylvania Animal Shelter 450 TV Drive, Fredericksburg VA 22408.

So sorry for your loss. We visited Olga regularly with St. Mary of The Immaculate Conception Catholic Church's Legion of Mary. She was always happy to see us and told us about her pets she had there at Woodmont. She had quite a few kitties and would often like them up on the bed. We enjoyed our visits with her and prayed with her often.
