Sin palabras un gran señor . Un esposo ejemplar con una esposa muy Bella persona y su familia muy Bella en verdad .. esto es muy lamentable en nuestra comunidad . En mi caso me ayudó mucho con el carro de mi hijo y animarnos cuando no funcionaba bien y nos refirió a un técnico para mejor y eso no tiene presio su nobleza y el ser ente de ayuda a otros . Dios lo tenga en la Santa gloria por que personas nobles al progimo son pocas y el fue muy buena persona con mi hijo eternamente agradecidos a él por ser como fue . Descanso eterno y fuerza a su familia.

I just heard about Gus today, I am at a lost for words. Gus was such a nice man and an excellent mechanic. He fixed my cars lights the last time I was at the shop, he did such an extra job with the bumper around them and at no extra cost. My condolences to his wife Lety, Bryan and his whole family. May he rest in Peace.

I met Gus a little more than 10 years ago when I worked weekends delivering car parts to local mechanics and repair shops. It was always a good day when I'd get an order with Gus's name on the delivery slip. Let's face it - there are a lot of mechanics out there who have a less-than-cheerful countenance. But Gus was always warm and always welcoming. (And he always had exact change.) I then became a regular customer of his through several vehicles - Gus was always honest and straightforward with me. On those wonderful days when we would happen to run into each other at Safeway, or Walmart, or Napa Auto Parts, he always made sure to ask about me and about my family, and I would lose track of time just chatting and laughing with him. Gus was my mechanic, but more importantly Gus was my good friend. I celebrate his life, and I will always be grateful for the honor of his friendship....and I'm really gonna miss him.

I first met Gus 14 yrs ago as I was beginning a 'career' (unknowingly) as an auto parts deliver. I was new to Culpeper, as well as the job, and Gus was always a joy to meet and do business with. I will very much miss talking with him on a variety of topics, as well as laughing with him about different things. R.I.P.

Gus you became a part of my life as a young girl only 15 years old. 35 years ago now. You were a big part of my Culpeper memories. I have always held you high for the wonderful person you were. Through his years and watching him with his family through many FB posts I can see how even more amazing of a person he became. I loved seeing the love he had for his family. There were miles between our friendship but a friend you always remained. Gus I will never forget you my friend.
