Jullian Irving Grante

OCT 18, 1950 - MAY 6, 2024

Jullian Irving Grante, 73, of Washington, D.C., passed away on Monday, May 6, 2024, at his home in Fredericksburg, VA.

He was born to the late James Landis and Mamie Landis. Jullian was known to everyone who knew him that he was a charismatic, thoughtful, very encouraging, well-educated man who loved to share his love of the Lord with everyone who knew him.

In his professional life, he was an Air Force Veteran who took two tours of Vietnam and also received the Purple Heart during his time of service. After retirement, he became a businessman, lobbyist, and writer as well as several volunteer opportunities with local and international companies. In particular, his writing The Day Our Towers Fell, is registered in the documentary collection of historical records at the National Museum of Washington.

In his free time, he loved to spend time keeping up with all his grandkids and his new great-grandson. He was savvy with help from his son-in-law with regular family Zoom meetings and attending local family events. Jullian enjoyed reading, music, spending quality time with friends and neighbors, and hosting bible study in their home. He was a long-standing member of Potomac Valley Church and was very loved by his community.

Jullian is survived by his wife, Jo Draper Grante; his two children, his daughter, Jamil Weaver, and her husband, Mike Weaver, and their kids, Blake, Kailah, Jianna and Zoe; his son, Dusan Grante, and his children, Faith and Savion; and many other extended family and friends.

Julianne always gave me a card for my birthday, mother's day, and when I had surgery. It is very sad that he has gone from our mist, but I know how he is enjoying his life with our Lord. My condolences to Jo and all of his family. I'll miss him. Maryann Horseman

We were so heartbroken to hear about Jullian's passing. We were fortunate enough to have known him and having had the chance to listen to the stories that he shared, reminiscing about the good old days and seeing the photos of family that he cherished so much. He always had a positive outlook on life and wore a smile on his face. Jullian loved God and was an inspiration to many and he had a heart for the future generation and keeping them on the right track. May he rest in peace. With deepest sympathies.

Judy Devey sent a virtual gift in honor of Jullian.

My husband, Gib and I were blessed to know Julian and his wife, Jo for the 11 years we shared at Regency of Chancellorsville. We knew Julian to be a man of God, proud of his family, and a giving member of our neighborhood. We will miss his broad smile, his positive attitude and his grateful heart. "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." We thank God for the privilege of knowing you!

My wife and I moved to Regency 10 years ago and Jullian was one of the first people we met. He was super friendly and over the years we saw him at many functions. Without fail he always had a big smile and a kind word for everyone. He was a great addition to our neighborhood. God bless you, Jullian. God blessed us all with your presence here!
