Clarence "Skip" Paul Corle, Jr.

APR 18, 1951 - DEC 19, 2024

Clarence "Skip" Paul Corle, Jr., 73, of Culpeper, died Thursday, December 19, 2024, at Novant Health UVA Culpeper Hospital. He was born April 18, 1951, in Altoona, PA to the late Clarence Paul Corle, Sr. and Christine Ann Wills.

Skip was a kind and caring man. He was warm and welcoming to all he encountered. He loved spending time with his family and enjoyed fishing and watching sports.

He is survived by his wife of 39 years, Sue Corle; three children, Michael Corle (Amy), Kyle Corle (Terry), and Mackenzie Corle (Adrianna); four grandchildren, Oliver Corle, Harper Corle, Landon Corle, and Mason Corle; and two siblings, Jack D. Corle (Cindi) and Robin D. Bast.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

An online guestbook and tribute wall are available at www.foundandsons.com

Found and Sons Funeral Chapel of Culpeper is serving the family.

I share these memories with a heavy heart for my cousin and friend Skipper and his family. I first met Skipper when my parents, Uncle Johnny and Aunt Millie, took us (Marg and Kenny as kids) on a summer trip to Fall River. That's where the adventure began. Uncle Jack decided to boil lobsters that evening and the kids had to sleep in the living room to keep a watchful eye on the galley. Sure enough on a trip to the bathroom, I peaked in the kitchen and saw an army of Lobsters crawling all over the place. The screams woke the whole house! Other adventures include the times I spent as a teen summering in Manassas on Damascus Drive, marching on the red-dirt covered "bloody" fields behind their development, according to Jackie! Skipper spent times at my house too when Uncle Jack and Aunt Chris came to visit Altoona. My favorite memory was the time Skipper and I took my sisters Corsair out for a 3am ride one summer night. No one ever knew!!! I wish I had more memories! My condolences to all. Cousin Kenny DeGennaro.
