Hi Michelle!! I know it has been years since we've seen each other. I found them the other night in a box of stuff, so I'm glad I could contribute to the wall! I should be coming to the funeral, just so you are aware. My family is unfortunately not able to make it, but they sent something. :)

Im so sorry to the family of Michael. I went to high school with him and had a lot of friends with him in class. He always was good to be around. It's a shame that we never kept in touch too much out of high school. To this day all I feel when I think of him are happy and pleasant feelings.

Michael Annino along with Kody Ross, Ben Goodman were some of the first guys i met in Bravo Battery 2-2 fa, they taught me the basics of the 119A3 and showed me what it was to be a 13 Bravo despite me being a 13 Delta. From running powder up to being able shoot a howitzer for the first time, this was a great crew to be with and Annino made it blast with all shenanigans that occurred. Another brother in arms gone too soon, but never forgotten.

Mike was the first friend I made in the Army. I met him day 1 at basic training, October 1st 2010. Been friends since. You will be missed.

Michael was an amazing big brother, and I can't even go on to write words here about how amazing he truly was because I'm sure you all know. But one thing I will say here is Michael is one of my biggest motivators in life. He always listened without judging me, he always gave me just what I needed to hear when I came for advice, he always made sure I knew how loved I was and how much potential I have. And I hope I gave him that in return. Sleep well brother. I'll see you again. 🙏🙏
