I'm sorry I missed Uncle Charles family night. I was thinking of you all during this time. I don't have a car, & my Mom's is not running, & we've all been ill. Was thinking of all of you, & caring about Aunt Catherine & you all during this time, but it would not be good to bring illness around so many others to add to this sad time by making others ill. Mom told me a lot of stories about Uncle Charles thru out times when family all gathered together. The stories were where he joked around alot, made other's laugh. How he teased others, including my Nanny alot & kept others on their toes with humor. May he rest in peace & all never forget the good times thru out his life. God bless all family & friends during this time. Uncle Charles is now walking with angels & watching all from the heavens above. 💙🙏

I want to first say a prayer for Aunt Catherine, Boo Boo, Jr, Martha, & Paul, along with all the grandkids, great grandkids, & rest of our family. This is a hard time, when we lose a loved one, but may all have some comfort knowing he is walking in the peace of heaven, with no more pain, & along with so many others of our lives ones. Walking along in & with God. Uncle Charles was one of a kind. Hilarious, caring, a joker. He will be missed by so many. I'm sorry I'm not able to be there, but health issues & the safety of others health has me at home. Please know my heart & thoughts are with you all & with Uncle Charles. God be with you all. Rest in peace, Uncle Charles. Love always, Bridgette ❤️
