Thoughts and prayers for the family of Rosie. She was a strong, smart woman and her family meant everything to her. She shared a love of books with my mom and they would meet every now and then and trade books. My mom and I loved seeing her at the mall. She would stop and we would all share stories of what was going on in our lives. She was so much fun and always had a smile. We will miss you Rosie. Kathy and Larry Johnson

I met Rosie just over two years ago. She blessed my life. I enjoyed my visits with her and Maria. Miss my phone calls from her on today's events. I learned she had the love of blue crabs like me. So I would bring her homemade crab cakes and pies. She will be cherished in my heart forever. RIP Rosie, til we meet again...

I have known Rosie since the early sixties. She was not only kind, she was the rock of the family. When something happened, you know she had it handled. Even through all the things life threw at her, she raised three fine sons. I will miss her deeply.

I lived next door to Rosie. To say she was a sweet person was an understatement. When she would call me on the phone and say are you home, I knew then she had made a cake or pie for me to try. I loved her so much. May you rest in Paradise, sweet Rosie.

I have the good fortune of knowing Rosie for over 40 years. Stafford, German Club, Road Trips, our trips back to Germany, Carlos O'Kelly's. Wonderful conversations on the phone solving world problems, she was always able to remember phone numbers, so many memories. She loved her family and I will miss and love till I see her again.
