Julius "J.B." Robert Barnes, Jr.

NOV 3, 1969 - MAR 14, 2025

Julius "J.B." Robert Barnes, Jr., 55, of Amissville, died Friday, March 14, 2025, at the University of Virginia Hospital. He was born November 3, 1969, in Warrenton, to Barbara Jean Barnes and the late Julius Robert Barnes, Sr.

J.B. was a grouch with a big heart. He was very witty, and the toughest person everyone knew. He loved drag racing and tinkering with anything, but especially cars and small engine repairs. J.B. enjoyed hunting and fishing and would do anything for anyone. Most of all, he loved spending time with his grandson, Mason.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his wife of 32 years, Deanna Marie Barnes; one daughter, Claudia Noel Barnes (Brandon Gray); one grandson, Mason Elijah Gray; three siblings, Richard L. Barnes (Tonya), Brian Barnes (Dee), and Terena Perez (Mike); and six nieces and nephews, Abby Barnes, Gracie Barnes, Shelby Barnes, Taylor Barnes, Jared Perez, and Casi Perez.

Services will be private.

An online guestbook and tribute wall are available at www.foundandsons.com

Found and Sons Funeral Chapel of Culpeper is serving the family.

I knew JB more as growing up. Him and Richard used to crack me up we would be visiting Barbara and Bob, JB and Richard they would be playing all of a sudden they get into a fight JB Paul Richard tear Richard be screaming then Barbara would go out there and get after the boys which sitting there and laugh, Bob would sit there and laugh. The boys be screaming at the boys And she tell him to stop and JB would tell her no he didn't start it. Richard started it and Richards would say no JV started it. I would say Barbara leave him alone. You're being boys, but then the household would start laughing and she start laughing. Bob was already laughing. and me and Tommy used to sit there we used to crack up laughing and then Richard would go over to his mom and sit on his mom's lap or at the feed of her where she was sitting in her chair and JB would called him a little chicken little chicken. It was so funny but the boys played together good and you know how kids are if there was some good memories and we go places together . We enjoyed our time with Barbara and Bob and the boys. The boys were great kids growing up. They got closer and two boys loved each other and as adults they got along their wives got along because our family was excellent to me and they are great family. I love you all and I'll cherish the memories. I have JB as I do with Mr. Corsaro Mrs. Corsaro Tommy Corsaro in Virginia Pitsenbarger. I love you JB thank you for leaving us. Such good memories from your childhood. You always funny all the things you would say and do as you were growing up as a little boy probably stuck with you as a man and I think you take your grouching this from your grandpa sorrow lol what a wonderful family
