My husband was my best friend, my soulmate literally we met in sixth grade at Pearl sample elementary where we became head over hills about each other to where we will spend all night on the telephone and meet each other at the skating rink on the weekends or the famous dollar tree We have been there so many ups and downs, but God bless me with the last 17 years to have you by my side, there's no man out there like you you are amazing father and hard-working man. I'm trying to think positive and think that I will see you one day soon but soon is not now so my heart shatters. This is not something that I'm ever going to be able to feel better about I cry every day I feel like a part of me that the day that you did, nobody will ever have that bond that we had but I am very thankful that I got to have that with you. Until we see each other again.
