My condolences to you - Granville, Linda & Brenda. Vivian was such a sweet person. Both of my sons said this after they met her at Mom's funeral. I never knew until today that Mary is her first name. That is special to me. Thinking of you. I cannot attend but will be there is spirit. Jeanette

Lots of memories came to mind as I remembered, but the one that is burned onto my brain may not be the time you and the family chose to remember. I was doing my volunteer shift at the hospital when I entered a patients room. To this day I'm not sure if my mouth flew open or not.... this patient had every right to be screaming in pain, mad at the world, etc. but no, she handling this situation like a trooper, positive, not cranky, etc. Her leg was as big and black as a stove pipe, due to a snake bite while picking apples with her family. To this day, thats what I remember most, even though I'd known her in many other settings Granville and Barbara, Linda and Brenda I pray for your peace during this time. Love to all, Joan Proctor
