Kids, I was sorry to hear about Jim's passing. We worked at Ft .Belvoir for several years together and I visited your house when it was just Luke, his mom and Jim. We talked about twice a year for a while. He used to give me the venison your mom wouldn't cook, mostly wonderful little rib chops. We had mutual friends in the photo world including RIT and Kodak. I'm missing him already!

So sorry that Carl and I couldn't be there with you at the loss of your dad. Reminiscing the past that brings back so many memories of happier times. I know he loved you both so very much! Praying our Lord Jesus comforts you now and in the days ahead. We hold you both so dear and love you so very much.
