Malcolm Lester posted:

I have great memories of Mike from his trips to the St. Albans alumni lacrosse game in DC with Gerry. Riding in the car with him from Fredericksburg to DC provided me and Coach Saint with non-stop banter and Mike's insights. Witnessing him watch lacrosse for the first time was a delight--he was captivated by the game, asked questions, and was a quick learner. And eating out with him and Gerry afterwards exposed me to Mike's love of shrimp (his love of Pepsi is a given). What a kind, humorous, sharp-witted man and gentle soul. He left a big impression on me and the lacrosse players & coaches all took a shine to him. My deepest condolences to Naomi, Gerry and all who were close with Mike. - Malcolm Lester & Family
