Billy was a really nice and easy going guy. He would help you anyway he could. Everyone that knew him knows he was a fighter for his health. But the most important thing he told us was that he had made a confession of faith awhile back and he was ready to go. Annette stay strong.

Billy has been a part of our family for a really long time. He was like a brother to me. I already miss that phone call that started "Hey Sis, what ya doing?" We shared many fun times and our family vacations won't be the same without him. Billy was an easy going guy with a big heart. He never met a stranger! He fought many health battles in his life and now he is pain free and I believe he is at peace with our Lord! You're forever in our hearts, Billy! Becky

While I only knew Billy a few short years, I came to love him like a brother. He was a great person to sit and have convo with and definitely could make me laugh. What I loved most about him was his love for life...to have a good time, to work hard, and play hard and spend it with friends he truly loved. If Billy liked you, you knew it. He genuinely cared about his friends and made sure he told them he loved them. And he was a straight shooter! I have love and respect for him and will miss him!He fought hard to turn his health around and did a number of times. But to me he looked most at peace on his last day on earth. Billy was ready and wanted all to know he was.Fly high my friend, we love and miss you!!!Stephanie

Billy was a good guy he was always being funny you have to laugh with him you couldn't be said around him. Billy was really sick he fought hard and did good job for a while but as time went on he started getting sick again he was fighting hard again the longer it went on the harder it was for him to fight he got really tired and said he was ready to go home. Billy was a very loving guy. Billy your home now your not suffering and that's what I want you to not suffer no more. I'm missing you and I will continue missing you but I know you are at peace. I Love you Billy And I miss you But I Will See you In Heaven One day
