Pastor Thomas (Tim) William Langlois

“Well done, good and faithful servant... enter into the joy of your Lord.”

On an undisclosed date in late 2025 (because even in eternity he refused to be predictable), Pastor Tim Langlois finally won the ultimate argument with death and went home to collect his long-promised reward, leaving the rest of us holding hymnals and wondering who's going to explain the Book of Revelation now.

For 23 years Tim pastored Calvary Chapel of Spotsylvania with the stubborn conviction that Jesus loves sinners, the Bible is true, and potluck dinners are a spiritual gift.

He preached grace like a man who had needed a lot of it himself, which, if you ever heard him tell stories about his pre-Jesus days, made perfect sense.

Tim is survived by his far-more-patient-than-he-deserved wife, Penelope, who somehow managed to stay married to a man whose idea of date night often involved a whiteboard and Greek verbs; his daughter Jacy, who inherited his wit and (thankfully) her mother's common sense; his brothers Joseph and David Langlois (along with David's far-better-half Jeanette); his stepson Randy Barnaby and Randy's wife Melissa; and three grandchildren—Joshua, Ryah, and Abigail—who were convinced, when they were yet babies, that Papa Tim's lap was the safest place on earth and his stories about Jonah and the whale were 100% documentary.

In lieu of flowers, Tim has requested that you forgive somebody who doesn't deserve it, read a chapter of Scripture out loud, and maybe skip the decaf.

He's already up there arguing with Paul about whether the Thessalonians passages are clearer in the Greek, and losing graciously.

A celebration of life will be held at Calvary Chapel of Fredericksburg, on January 3, 2026, followed by a reception featuring slightly burnt coffee and casseroles that could raise the dead. Which, come to think of it, was always his specialty anyway.

See you soon, Pastor Tim. Save us a seat near the front; we still have questions.

It always made me laugh when Pastor Tim, because of his accent, put "r"s in some words that didn't have an "r" and left out the "r"s in some words that had an "r"! 🤔

Pastor Tim will always be remembered by me for being the best teaching preacher ever. I've gone to church all my life, but when a friend persuaded me to come to CC Spotsy 16 years ago, I stayed because he was such a good teacher. His Bible teaching style made it come to life, and when he taught the Bible, I could feel the Holy Spirit bring the Word of God into my heart and my mind. And the way he taught the Word caused me to remember more and more Bible verses. He stirred in me a hunger for the Word of God like I never had before. His messages helped me get through each week since I worked so much and needed to be encouraged by the Word of God. I am forever grateful for learning God's word under such a Spirit-filled teacher as Pastor Tim and his wife Penny. I believe he is casting his crowns at the feet of Jesus right now. I am so blessed that he taught Pastor Ron who is now carrying on his torch of teaching the full council of God by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

One of my favorite memories Penny is when Pastor Charley and I were visiting you guys. We were sitting in the downstairs room and Charley and Tim were talking philosophy and Jesus. I was so happy when you said let's go upstairs and talk. Those guys always talked over my head. Now to know they are together in Heaven safely home brings me comfort. Praying for you Jacy, Randy, and all your family for the God of all peace to comfort you all.

I want to give thanks to our Father in Heaven for Pastor Tim and all his service to the Lord! Pastor Tim always Believed in me even when I didn't believe in myself. The Lord used Pastor Tim in my life when I was surrounded in complete darkness and I will never forget the goodness of his heart! If I can remember one thing Pastor Tim told me is this "Jesus is the way Chris!" I love you! -Chris ♥

My favorite memory was when Pastor Tim was counseling me during a rough time in my life, and he kept telling me about a scripture where we have to defend ourselves from "firey dots" thrown by the enemy. I grew up in a Christian school and had never heard that phrase! I even researched it in a concordance. Finally the light came on in my brain....."firey darts"!! That Massachusetts accent got me more than once! All kidding aside, I miss his teaching and counsel, and will always remember to use God's word to protect myself from whatever the enemy is throwing at me. Debbie Revely

Pastor Tim's soft spoken genuine invitation to attend his church service is how and why I went back to church after many years of not serving my God. Pastor Tim Baptised me, Performed my beautiful wedding ceremony, and officiated my husband's funeral. Pastor Tim you were a very special person in my life at very important and special moments. I remember you saying this was not your home, (sadly) I'm glad you have gone home. You will be remembered and missed.
