Samantha Lynn Moeller

JUL 9, 1996 - JAN 5, 2026

Samantha Lynn Moeller, 29, of Maidens, VA, passed away on Monday, January 5, 2026 at Martha Jefferson Hospital. She was born July 9, 1996 in Charlottesville, VA.

Samantha grew up in Charlottesville, graduating from Albemarle High School in 2014 and the University of Virginia (B.S., Computer Science) in 2018. She was a skilled musician, singer, and performer, joining the trumpet section of the UVA Cavalier Marching Band, where she met her husband, Gray.

Samantha worked as a security management specialist at SWIFT in Culpeper, Virginia from 2018 to 2022. In 2022, Samantha and her husband moved temporarily to Wasilla, Alaska, where she was baptized and her daughter, Bonnie was born. Samantha and Gray returned to central Virginia after a year of adventure.

It was Samantha's pleasure to support others uncomplainingly. She loved to score her brother's baseball games, constantly celebrated her friends, and began a YouTube channel which has helped tens of thousands of people navigate the uncertainty of a cancer diagnosis. Samantha found her greatest joy as a mother, a vocation in which she excelled with patience, wisdom, and faith. Samantha found constant comfort in Christ, and displayed His love in her family and beyond.

Samantha is survived by her husband of five years, Eric Gray Moeller; daughter, Bonnie Moeller; parents, Christopher and Michelle Reid; sister, Suzanne Pattison (Brian); brothers, Steven Reid (Lexi), Scott Reid (Breanna); nieces, Lucie, Eloise and Lyla; in laws, Leslie and Eric Moeller; brother-in-law, Jack Moeller (Natalie); sister-in-law, Virginia Moeller; nieces, Helen, Kelley Faith and Heidi; grandparents, Marilyn Hertel and Robert Reid and a host of extended family and friends.

Samantha was preceded in death by grandparents, George Hertel and Lucie "Sue" Reid.

Samantha and I went to middle/high school together. We were diagnosed with cancer around the same time and back then on a few occasions shared conversations surrounding cancer in young people, treatment plans, etc. She always handled her diagnosis with such grace and courage as was evidenced by her vulnerable YouTube videos. Although I was blessed to receive a cure for my diagnosis, I continued to follow her journey from a far in the hopes she would get the cure she so deserved. Upon learning of her passing, I was reminded of how unfair this life can be. Samantha was the epitome of a cancer warrior and a true inspiration to the oncology community. I believe she had the warmest soul that could be felt by everyone around her. Gray and Bonnie. I pray you both are able to find peace and comfort in this difficult time. She was truly an incredible person. There are no words. My deepest condolences to you all. 🌻 - Nick Wintersteiger

Samantha, I miss you. You helped me get through 4 years of college and shape who I am today. You were such a solid rock and foundation for our little rag tag group. You gave so much without asking for anything in return. Band itself felt like a full time job in college where did you even find time to put photos and videos together for band prom(banquet)?? You were a founding member of UVA's most secret society: the Wednesday Night Bakers. A group I would probably think was a fever dream without all the moments and memories you captured in candid photos of us. I can't tell you how much it means to be able to actually look back and see those memories. Nothing will ever take away the excitement and slight fear of seeing "Samantha Reid added a photo of you." I'll miss you everyday friend but you will always have a space in my heart. -Kat

Samantha, words will never quite describe the energy, beauty, passion, and power your soul carried through this world. You were the reason I took four years of theatre in high school from our plays in Grandmom's basement (which we eventually filmed because they were clearly THAT good) to you starting your YouTube channel and inspiring me to start one too. I'll never forget your stop motion videos of your American Girl dolls, your creativity knew no limits. You truly were a powerhouse of a person, and I feel blessed to have grown alongside you, and even more blessed to have watched you become a mother to Bonnie. I will forever miss you. Rest peacefully. I love you. ❤️
