My grandmother was the absolute heart and soul of my family and to me. A truly amazing and sweet soul whose smile had the power to light up any room she entered, and was always a joy to everyone around her. She found her greatest happiness in helping others, and touched countless lives with her generosity and wisdom. I remember all the times during my upbringing I would get to visit her at Giant Food while she was working. As soon as she saw me, no matter what she was doing she always came out from behind the deli counter to pick me up and give me her love. I will forever cherish the summer I lived with her, to the multiple phone calls a week to keep in touch, to all the love she gave me, my husband, my kids and so much more! Losing her has left me deeply heartbroken, and the void she leaves behind is immeasurable. I will miss her guidance, her love, her warmth, and her presence more than words can express...I love you grandma ❤️
