Gordon was a regular at Roxbury Mills. He always looked forward to the Christmas party at the store. He had a kind heart and loved to feed the birds. His cars and truck were awesome vehicles from the 60's / 70's. Rest in peace, Gordon.

Gordon was a great guy. Very quiet person. Went to school together and grew up together. Every Halloween someone gave me a trick or treat in a cute bag with a green walnut in it. It took me years before I found out it was Gordon dropping that in my trick treat bag. Ha!Ha! RIP old friend. Linda Hall Sullivan
