Jared Nathaniel Brundage

AUG 15, 2005 - APR 23, 2026

Jared Nathaniel Brundage, 20, of Unionville, passed away on Thursday, April 23, 2026 at UVA Culpeper Hospital. He was born August 15, 2005 in Culpeper, Virginia to Lonnie Lee Brundage, Jr. and Erica Cooper.

Born with a fearless spirit and a heart far bigger than this world, passed away leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and unforgettable adventure. A true daredevil in every sense, he lived life wide open—whether he was hunting, fishing, playing football, riding motorcycles, gaming, or working on his trucks. If it had wheels, a challenge, or a thrill, he was already there.

Jared graduated from Culpeper County High School in 2023, proud of where he came from and even prouder of the people he loved. Family meant everything to him. If there was a gathering, he showed up early; if there was food, there were never leftovers. His smile—big, bright, and impossible to forget—lit up every room he walked into.

He never met a stranger. He respected everyone, welcomed anyone, and would literally give the shirt off his back to someone who needed it. Generous, kind, loving, and loyal, he was the kind of big brother others could only hope for. He loved “flipping things,” fixing things, and helping people even more.

He leaves behind a world that feels quieter without his laugh, his energy, and his boundless heart. Those who knew him will carry his memory as a reminder to live boldly, love deeply, and help others without hesitation—just like he always did.

Jared is survived by his father, Lonnie Lee Brundage, Jr. (Teresa); his mother, Erica Cooper; siblings, Ricky Neighbors (Dallice), Joyce “Kattie” Hunton (Nicholas), David Bessette, II (Sarah), Katelyn Pringle (Jaaron), Ethan Brundage, Jozie Long, Gabriel Zank, Dylan Brundage, Jacoby Zank and Jamison Zank; paternal grandparents, Lonnie Lee Brundage, Sr. (Robin) and Sonya McPeak (Gary); maternal grandmother, Dawn D. Dye (Nolan); great-grandfather, Fernando Villavicencio; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family and friends.
