Pat and Glenn.....The strong love...the bond...the strength...and the faith shared between you and your family that we witnessed this week was not only incredibly beautiful and admirable but it also softly touched us and will forever leave a mark upon our hearts. Gene was truly a good man who was loved and highly respected by everyone whose life he touched and it is easy to see that your other children and your children's children turned out to be from that same special mold. I will forever carry in my mind the picture of one of your little grandsons trying to comfort his big sister by gently stroking her back and bravely offering her a sweet reassuring smile from his little tear stained face as she tried hard to fight back tears of her own at the visitation. My heart melts and my eyes get damp everytime I think of it. Always remember, we love you and want you to know that you will be forever in our thoughts and prayers....##imported-begin##Tom and Marty Milder##imported-end##

We are truly sorry about your loss. Although we only got to meet Gene on a couple of occasions, we were so impressed with what a nice person he was. It's easy to see how Peter grew to be such a nice young man. Please let us know if there is ever anything we can do.###imported-begin##Jim and Kathy Davis###imported-end##
