Just heard of Donna's passing. I am Donna's first cousin. I have the fonest of childhood memories visiting Donna and my Aunt Virginia and Uncle Johnny and playing crochett in the backyard of their home at family picnics. Our families always got together at Thanksgiving, and the summer vacations the cousins spent together included my sister Patsy, Donna, John Drew, and our families at Morrattico and were the best memories of all. Unfortunately, with time, families tend to grow apart, and such was the case with ours. Although, my Mom will be 91 this coming August, and she helps to keep her children in close touch with one another through family functions. My sincerest sympathy to your family. I'm so sorry for your loss. Judy Wessells
