Dear Kyle, I hope you remember me - Pam Reinking. We used to go to church and school together when you were in Orange City before you moved away. I know you spent a lot of time with your Grandma growing up, and knowing how close I am to my grandparents, I'm sure this has been a difficult time for you and your family. I lost track of you after you moved away, but when my Mom called to tell me the news, I thought I would just send you an email to say hello and that I'm praying for your family. I've lived near Nashville, Tennessee for nearly 13 years. I got married in college and our daughter is 19 months old. In my career days I did editing and marketing for a publishing house but now I'm a stay-at-home mom. I also do freelance editing and I teach music classes. That's the very short story of my life. I have no idea what you've been up to all these years or how you have been. I still keep in touch with Troy Turnwall, I'm guessing you remember Troy. Anyway, don't feel you have to email back if you don't want to. It's fine, I just wanted to let you know that I heard the news and that I was praying for your family during this time. I hope you remember your time in Orange City fondly. Some of us still remember you! Take care. Pamela
