You were definitely definitely one of the best friends I've ever had, and ever will have. Even to this day, and I'm 30 years old now. I feel blessed and honored to know such a great person in my life, and to have the pleasure of being one of your best friends for so many years. And I still love you man, I always have and always will. We talked almost everyday on the phone for many many years and to this day I still cherish those conversations and memories. You were such a genuine, nice person. I have to stop typing now because I am tearing up a little lol I hope you are doing well wherever you are now. Long live Terrell

It's so hard to believe it has been 6 years. Although, I only had the opportunity to meet Davon the Friday before his untimely death, he made such an impact. I was a substitute teacher. I had Davon for technology class (Mr. Sbitani). He carried around those drum sticks just as my son did growing up. Although our conversation was brief, it is still remembered 6 years later. I am continuously praying for the Carroll family. Davon you are remembered for the infectious smile, and your polite mannerism towards adults. Mrs. Bridget Morris

I miss you telling me I am so stupid when I say something dumb to make everyone laugh. I miss how you would crack jokes and make everyone laugh because you were so funny. I miss you and cant believe time has went by so quickly without you here. I wanted to see you achieve all of those hopes you had for yourself that you would always tell me you were going to do one day. I know you are watching over all of us. Give your Mom strength because she needs it. And even though everyone else tries to act ok- we are all changed and it hurts so much to see this. Nana, Marcelle, Talease, Trevon, Tavian and Shorty all miss you terribly Terrell! There is a void that we cant fill- I know you are with us because everyday there is something that will randomly remind me of you like you are letting me know you are here. I find pictures of you everywhere. Ones I don't even remember taking. You were just like one of my own kids. We will see you again one day. Give Kyra a hug for us and let her know I am sorry for not watching her like I should have been that morning too. I love you!

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Wanda we are so saddened to hear of the loss of your son. Terrell was such a sweetheart with a big heart and a kind soul. He will greatly be missed by so many. He may be gone but he will never be forgotten or leave you just remember he'll always be with you in your heart and soul forever and as your angel in heaven looking down on you always sending you and your family loving hugs and kisses and smiling that caring smile he always had. You and your family will be in our thoughts and prayers as you go through this tough time. Your Friends, Shannon & Jason Williams, and Kids One of Ashley and my favorite memories of Terrell that makes us laugh is when he tried to drive that green van with his mom. When he went to use the turn signal the headlights and wipers were going off and he couldn't figure out how to get them off lol then he went up the hill where the wall is now where we both live then couldn't figure how to get down so she told him just to park it and get out and she would drive home lol. That still makes me laugh as I write this btw they were laughing and smiling about it the whole time. We will miss you in the neighborhood. Shannon & Ashley

I don't know where to begin, Davon was a student I just met on Friday April 16th. I had the pleasure of talking to him about his name which is similar to my daughter's. I am a substitute teacher. I had Davon for technology class for Mr. Sbitani. I subbed at Massaponax High School often and would see this young man whom favored my own son in so many ways. I used to always look at him in those beautiful eyes and see my son. My hurt broke when I returned to Massaponax on Tuesday and learned of what happened. The banner with the picture in the hallway brought me to tears. I have cried for this young man and the family. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. I pray for your strength to get through this terrible time. God Bless Mrs. Morris

Man. Such a great person just gone. Someone I loved dearly. Someone who I told everything to. I can't begin to imagine how the family feels. So many good memories never forgotten. I will always love Davon. He was a stranger then a friend and then someone I looked forward to talking to because he was my boyfriend. He always supported me in what I did. Never doubted me, and I thank God for that. I'm sending all my love to all his family and friends. God Bless. -Taseania Boles

I did not know your son, but I was sharing encouragement of God's love and grace at the time of your sons accident. A friend sent us a picture of the accident, we saw nothing but darkness, yet to the left of the picture was a brightly glowing cross which was from the church at the location. Immediatly, I knew God was there at the scene of that accident. My son, a close friend and myself immediatly began to pray for all that were involved and at the scene of this accident. Our hearts ache for you, but though we may not know each other, our prays are with you. Your son was not alone that night, God was with him.
