“ Winnie R.I.P. forever you will be greatly missed. You were always a great school and church friend to us. Prayers go out to all of her family members. You are free to roam around in Heaven from all the sickness down here on earth. I will always love you and I will remember you forever. From Penny Seidel (Samons) and my husband Matthew W. Seidel and my brother Michael Samons.

“ Winnie... as I called her... she was one of the most sweetest friend I ever had. We lost touch after high school but, I would run into her occasionally. She always had the most amazing, warm smile... every time I saw her! She was head over heels in love with Derek in school.... her future husband! I will miss your my dear friend!
