

Jason A. Clark

August 2, 1989 - June 27, 2020

Jason A. Clark, 30, of Bristow, passed away on Saturday, June 27, 2020.

Jason was an angel on Earth. He was kind, loving, and had the hugest heart. Jason had the best smile - you could see his eyes light up as he smiled at you. He was generous with his hugs, always giving the best embrace. Jason loved his family, friends and animals.

He loved to play basketball from an early age and was very talented. Jason was an avid Washington sports fan, attending many Redskins and Wizards games. He spent many years making music that he loved to share with friends.

Jason was the greatest uncle to his nephews. They lovingly called him "Unky", and will miss growing up with their favorite uncle.

He is survived by his parents, Crystal Furtado (Greg Bonner) and Steve Clark (Valerie); his siblings, Andrew Clark (Elizabeth), Kory Clark, Cayley Furtado, Paul Appel, Seth Appel, Elyssa Bonner, and Ryan Bonner, his nephews, Dylan Clark, Zane Clark and Michael Clark, his grandmothers, Gloria Glotfelty and Fredricka Clark, numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends that loved him dearly.

Services will be private.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in his name to St. Jude Research Hospital.

Online condolences may be shared with his family at foundandsons.com.

“ I just learned of Jason's passing and I just had to reach out. I didn't know him long, having met him in January, soon after starting a new job here in Seattle.

But, I can say that Jason was key to many successful projects which positively impacted the lives of millions of people around the world. He was a truly gifted and intelligent technologist who loved his family. He ALWAYS had a smile on his face and a quick wit. I admired him.

Today he was needed, because we just KNEW he'd remember our issue just like he worked on it yesterday, when we learned that he was gone.

He has been, and will continue to be missed. Thank you for sharing him with us.

“ Family I don't know your love one, but I do know pain that comes with losing someone so close..so I wanted to offer my condolences and say how very sorry I am that you all have to go through this...You are not alone in your grief,so I do hope it eases your pain a little to know others care...God says he is near to those that are broken hearted, as I know you must be so don't forget the power of prayer...Again I'm sorry for your loss

“ I was the first to see your beautiful face come into the world and I was the one to find you when you left. You were my gift from God for 30 years and I will cherish every memory I have of you. I know you are in heaven challenging Kobe to a pick up game. I will miss you every minute until we can be together again. I love you my son, forever and always.
