“ Loved her dearly. A friend of the family for over 50 years. Now she is with her beloved Savior and her wonderful husband Johnny. What a reunion they are having.

“ GMa and GPa were and will forever remain very dear friends of our family. When my grandparents passed, GMa and GPa were there to help fill the role of great grandparents to our precious child Emma (which they nicked named "Pretty Girl". The day we brought Emma home and when they first laid eyes on her, I thought Charlie and I would never see our Emma again. GMa cradled her in her arms and then allowed GPa to hold her while rocking her in his favorite chair. Holidays were spent at our home, on most occasions where a houseful of laughter and joy were in abundance. Birthday parties were spent with GMa and GPa as well as Christmas Breakfast and gift exchanges. Shopping sprees and, oh Lord, the stuffed animals that they bought for their "pretty girl" - the joy truly has been in abundance to where our cup runneth over. Their house was filled with the sounds of piano music, dancing and the sounds of pitter patter of little feet along with laughter and such joy. Both GMa and GPa were devoted to one another in life and they are now in back together once more.

GMa - your rest now sweetie and know that we will NEVER EVER forget. Your presence is always with us and we know that you, GPa, MeeMaw and Daddy will be our guardian angels. Until we see each other again know that we will forever LOVE YOU

“ For those of us who had the honor and privilege to be in her presence, it was a treat to feel so much love. Julia and John were a couple like no other; always loving, always giving, always caring, always Godly. Their love for one another was inspiring, their devotion to God, their daughter Carol and their community was priceless. Many of us think of the time she played the piano, baked some cookies, brew some coffee, our conversations, our laughter, the pure joy to be in their presence. We have missed you dearly and will continue to miss you, but knowing that we serve a Mighty God who reconciles us to Himself and our departed loved ones, it soothes our heart. May God continue to bless Carol and your earthly family as you join that Celestial Choir with your blessed hands. We are all rejoicing as we picture our beloved John asking you to, "Play Something." Thanks for the love, the memories, the teachings, and your Godly living example. We love you Julia. Daniel Cruz and Family
