

Taylor William Rudnick

November 14, 1995 - April 19, 2021

On April 19, 2021, Taylor William Rudnick unexpectedly left this world, joining his grandparents, William and Catherine Rudnick, at the young age of 25.

Taylor's memory lives on by his parents, Kelly J Rudnick and Deanna M Rudnick; siblings, Joseph R Baumgardner, Gabriela A Rudnick, and Riley T Rudnick, his grandma Linda Law and grandpa Keith Moore, his Brother-in-Law Curtis Baumgardner, his Sister-in-Law Katelyn Rudnick, and soon to arrive nephew, Liam Rudnick.

Taylor was born on November 14, 1995, in Elk Grove, Illinois. He was bright and driven, always looking to soar, and his family was his anchor. Growing up, he never had to study--always in the pursuit of expanding his mind and body. When he attended and graduated from Godwin High School in 2014, he was an honor student and All-American Wrestler.

He continued his education studying at Germanna Community College and Virginian Commonwealth University, studying Information Technology. While in Richmond, VA, he produced music and worked as a bouncer. Taylor was known by many and lived unapologetically.

Taylor was blessed to see the world differently, and that came with its own demons. Some took shape as people or depression, but he won through it all. He started to charter onto a new path in pursuit of happiness and wellness. He moved back home to Locust Grove, where Taylor began working for his mother at All Fur Pet Grooming, built his gym, and set goals to make the most out of every day. He started to go back to school to finish his degree in Information Technology while attending Real Estate School. He obtained his Real Estate License and had signed with Keller Williams Realty. Taylor started to feel happiness and pride for the world he was making for himself. He was always learning something new, reading multiple books simultaneously, and writing his ideas and thoughts anywhere he could. Taylor was a deep and empathetic thinker, and he would talk to anyone and profoundly listen, making them feel like they were the most important person in the room. And it is in his words and stories, his family and friends cling to his memory and remembers his beautiful mind.

He wrote.

"I am going to be extremely abundant.

I am going to provide for those around me who cannot provide for themselves.

I am going to become one with the universe and teach others my ways.

Along the way, I will do no harm.

I will create all that I envision."

“ My heart is broken for such a beautiful family. Taylor and my son were close friends and grew up a good share of their later childhood together. Taylor spent many nights here. Extremely polite without failure. Always looking us in the eye and made time to care about whatever the conversation was. They were characters always goofing and laughing. I have no idea what Taylor's family must be feeling. But our families have gotten to know one-another's, and your family is so grounded in Faith. Although way too early and way too young...eternal security is what defines all of life. Taylor's homecoming with Jesus is part of Gods plan now. Our thoughts and prayers continue with all of you.

“ I will always remember how God led us to Fellowship Baptist Church. There we met one of the most welcoming families, the Rudnick's. We found great friendship and love. I will always remember how Taylor and Kyle became good friends. Taylor was the first sleepover Kyle ever went to. He was so excited.

I know God led our families in different directions but you all remained important to us. We are grieving for you all and we pray for God's peace to be laid on each of you. We love you all.

“ I remember him being so goofy when he was receptioning at the old fred shop. Changing dogs names up. He wanted to make others laugh. There was one night that was a little crazy, but looking back it was a great memory to make. Getting in a pickle at a bar with a few of us. Driving full speed from one place to another chasing the Rudnick boys, laughing all the while! It was a night for the books. He new how to leave an impression.
